

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. This law has improved my time a home greatly. I used to receive an average of six calls per night between the hours of 5:00 and 8:00. The peace which has been afforded by Indiana's Telephone Privacy law is one of the best measures implemented by the government for many, many years. Please keep this law in effect! Thank you.